HUMAN RESOURCE OUTSOURCING FOR EMPLOYERS

SHRMS offers several service options for supporting the HR function in small, medium and large companies. We guide, support and manage all or part of the HR responsibilities and requirements so that our clients can focus on their businesses. Our full-service, on-demand and on-call options are comprehensive, cost effective and flexible. Our dedicated and experienced HR Consultants will assist and support your employees and management team. Our services include the following:

HR ON CALL

HR On Call: Provides critical HR expertise when you need it most like dealing with issues of: employee turnover and turnover problems, discipline and termination decisions, Central and state employment laws: posting, record-keeping and reporting requirements, harassment and discrimination complaints and hundreds of other situations with liability potential. You have access to our professional staff of HR managers, with over 100 combined years of experience- all backed by an extensive HR research library.

HR PORTAL

HR Portal: provides a mix of HR content that includes Human Resources, Safety, Compensation, Retirement and Benefits content. The site also includes daily email news and hundreds of sample policies, Central and State forms, notices, agreements and checklists. It's a common place resume bank of potential candidates and Job Advertisement by respective employers.

HR ON SITE

HR On Site: provides on-site, HR professionals as needed to supplement your current staff. These professionals can mentor and support the management team and address specific compliance, employee relations and other HR issues. We offer several options including weekly, bi-weekly or project based on-site assistance.

HR ON DEMAND

HR On Demand: provides access to our HR professionals on a project basis. Our HR team is ready and equipped to meet any of your HR or employee administrative needs including: job description and performance evaluation review and/or development, HRIS consulting, compensation consulting, review/ development of employee manuals, handbooks and forms, training, workshops and webinar access.

HR EFFECTIVENESS ANALYSIS / AUDIT

HR Effectiveness Analysis/Audit: provides comprehensive HR assessment designed to review the current systems and processes in place to provide effective HR policies and procedures, skills analysis of HR personnel, recruitment and retention strategies, new employee orientation program, employee relations/ morale improvement, suitable and compliant employee handbook and policy manual. This assessment compares your current practices to what needs to be completed in accordance with the government legislation.

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOKS

Customized Employee Handbooks and Forms: provides customized handbooks and forms that offer fair and balanced policies that are a must in today's business climate. Our approach is a proven process in articulating sound human resource principles and practices- not an 'off-the-shelf guidebook. We take the time to talk our clients through the 'ins and 'outs' of policy administration so that our clients and their managers understand the importance of consistency in policy administration.

COMPENSATION & SALARY ADMIN

Compensation & Salary Administration (job descriptions, market surveys, pay grades/ ranges, compensation software): provides a full range of consulting services necessary to help our clients control their total labour costs- which is arguably, the most difficult challenge for organizations in today's dynamic environment. We offer services necessary to help your organization build fully integrated, effective and equitable compensation programs. Our services include completing job evaluations, job family design/ development and job descriptions including all regulatory requirements. We also offer detailed internal equity analysis of each position, external equity market analyses, flexible/ effective salary management programs that ensure external competiveness and internal equity (traditional pay grades, market reference guidelines, broad-bands and custom-tailored approaches).

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

Performance Management (processes and tools to help identify core competencies and assist with the process of building performance standards): We provide workforce performance processes and tools that help our clients identify those core skills and assist with the process of building performance standards. We assess where our client's critical skills and competencies lie to determine what skills are deficient in the company. Our reliable tools provide our clients with information and insights on how to customize productivity and performance roadmaps that will ensure higher profits. Some of our productivity and performance services include the following: Performance Management Techniques, Morale and Motivation, Obstacles to Productivity, Productivity Methods and Analysis and Incentive Pay.

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Employee Relations (Separations, Exit Interviews, and Conflict Management): provides our clients with the ability to control their risk related to employment and benefits practices. The importance in understanding and interpreting legal decisions and legislation is fundamental in today's litigious and regulated environment. Our services focus on preventive and proactive HR. We assess your existing HR policies and help to determine whether or not they comply with governments regulations. If there are any changes in applicable laws which affect our client companies, they will be notified and policies will be developed accordingly.

RECRUITING

Recruiting (retained, hourly and project-based): provides value to our client's recruitment initiatives by utilizing proven processes and experienced consultants. SHRMS is recognized as a generalist search firm with success in diverse industries and professional/ functional areas. We have extensive national and community search access and a commitment to understanding the uniqueness of every client culture. We take time to learn, explore and understand our client's strengths and challenges in regard to employee selection and retention. Our services include the following: Research, Sourcing and Recruitment, Hiring Process Consulting, Candidate Assessment and Selection and Job Description Development.

CAREER TRANSITION SERVICES

Career Transition and Outplacement Services (virtual and onsite): We recognize the unique challenges facing individuals exploring career transition opportunities. That is why we tailor for each client a custom plan that is proactive, results-oriented, and approached with a sense of urgency. Service options include group and individual outplacement programs, self-directed programs, onsite and virtual career centres, training workshops, management and executive coaching, entrepreneurial coaching, profile assessments, and consulting to support reorganization, talent acquisition, career path retention and change management programs.
